ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR

Vol. 50-No. 11

BARTON, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1921

Single Copies 5 Cents.

ADVERTISING

Phone 113-5.

Brenan, Orleans.

FOR SALE-In Glover village, residence of late Mrs. W. M. Aldrich. Inquire of E. L. Alexander, Glover. 11-12 FOR SALE—Pigs, also pair of nice turkeys. Would sell turkeys separ-

FOR SALE-Holstein bull coming two. Well marked and a fine ani-A. E. Tracy, Orleans. Tel. 166-11tf ate. P. D. Walker, Barton.

FOR SALE-Farm of 80 acres, one half mile to depot with sugar place, stock and tools. Box 98, West Burke.

FOR SALE-White Fawn Indian

of Flynt Bld'g. & Const. Co., Barton. scholarship. 11tf

FOR SALE-Residence on Willoughby avenue, Orleans. All modern conveniences. In good repair. Barn, several days. garden, good building lot. Apply to Wallace H. Gilpin, admr., Barton. tf FOR SALE—Nearly new DeLava separator, No. 17, also second hand driving harness. V. O. Miles, Barton. 'Phone 34-14. FOR SALE-Two good bulls coming one and two. Registered Holstein. Hastings & Smith, West

9-11 Glover. FOR SALE CHEAP-Nearly new sugar rig complete with galvanized ouckets. Inquire of Elery Miller,

Newport, or F. S. Whitcher, Barton. FOR SALE OR RENT-Farin with 160 acres, sugar and apple orchards, running water. Good house and barn. Only two miles from Barton village on Westmore road. Good granite quarry on property. Also 180 acres of woodland and pasture. J. M. Barnard, Barton. PAPER MILL FELTS-For cloth- 'May Pond road.

ing, blankets, and auto robes. Light, medium and heavy weight. Any width. 100% pure washable wool Sent parcel post from our Maine mill at 50 cents a pound. Seven pounds will make a blanket. Pontiac Woolen Products Co., 8 East 34th St., New York City. № 8-11p

FOR SALE-three work horses, weighing 1500, 2 sets double work harness, 2 double wagons, 2 evaporators, 2500 iron and wood buckets, 100 cords stove wood. P. W. Desmarais. Barton, Vt.

FOR SALE-My real estate in Coventry village consisting of house and barn, one acre of land. Electric ights in house and barn, furnace heated, hot and cold water. All in first class repair. Bert Ware. 10-13p

FOR SALE-All my sugar tools, consisting of one Leader evaporator and arch, 12 by 4; one sugaring-off pan and arch, nearly new, about 300 in buckets, 1000 patent spouts, 1200 covers, 2 large sap holders, one large gathering tub, also 350 cords of block wood. Can load a few cars. H. E. Merrill, Barton. 'Phone 128-12. 10tf

FOR SALE-Up-to-date farm, 220 acres, 80 acres pasture and tillage, he rest lumber and wood. Will keep 25 cows and team. Extra good house, 10 rooms and bath. Good barn with high drive, 2 miles from station. For information call or write W. T.

FOR SALE-My double tenement house on Lincoln avenue in good order; 6 rooms, pantry, flush closet and hall; large wood shed in basement of each. Veranda whole length of house two large gardens. Storm windows and screens, electric lights. Five minutes' walk to postoffice. H. C. Gay 11tf

FOR SALE-Augustus F. French place on Glover street in Barton vilage. Two-story, two-tenement house; large barn, two acres land, three fine building lots besides house lot, price $4000, $1200 down and balance can remain on mortgage. Will arrange so rent can pay mortgage. Great and men's suits to order, also cleanchance for person of small means who ing, pressing, repairing, and dyeing. would like to pay for fine home. Call upon F. W. Baldwin, executor French

LOST

LOST-Small Beagle female, black ides and back, tan head and ears. Please return and get reward. Geo. F. Reed, Barton. 11-12

LOST-About three weeks ago mall black and tan female rabbit Wore collar with "Paul rooks, Willoughby," on same. Noty Brooks or Clarence Phillips, Glov-10-11

C. PARKER McCAULEY, GRAD ATE of Boston Tuning school, now ith Bailey's Music Rooms, Newport.

Barton Academy Notes

cockere.s. R. A. Dutton, Orleans, Vt. Drew was given honorable mention. joyment to many. 1wp The selections were very well given and no prompting was done, which of the Barton lecture course. FOR SALE—Second hand Ford shows the splendid drilling of Miss touring car. Ready to run. Maurice Nellie Cook. The judges found it 9-10p hard to decide to whom to give the FOR SALE—Five-passenger car in fine condition. Orleans Garage, Orleans.

10-15

The program surely was a benefit to the school. A list of the speakes and their program numbers are as follows: "The Soul of a Violin," by Margaret Merrill, Florence Cook, '21; "Pro Patria," by Ada Tully Anmerman, Mamie Sheltra, '23; "The Bear Story," by J. W. Riley, Avis Bowen, '22; "The Frenchman," Clifton Drew, '21; "The Gladiator," Dorothy Emerson, '21; Selections from linery season.
"Pickwick Papers," Nellie Pudvah,
'21; "The White Man's Burden," by in town Monday Kipling, Beatrice Labor, '23; "Water-'oo," by Lord Byron, Geraldine Sargent, '24.

Mr. Merrill announced the two honors of the senior class on Tuesday morning. With each of these awards | Co., has returned from a business trip roes a scholarship valued at $100 to Boston and Springfield. the University of Vermont. The highest award, the valedictory, was given Runner Ducks, $8 for three. Eggs to Clyde Walcott; the second award. $1.50 for 15. John Gibson, Island the salutatory, fell to Miss Mildred 11-15 Langevin. Both of these students have done very excellent work for Grange Friday evening. Roll call to FOR SALE-About 1200 hollow tile four years. They earned the honors blocks 12x12x8. Suitable for a gar- in competition with a class which, as age or fire proof dwelling. Inquire a whole, has shown a high degree of training in a Montreal hospital, has

BARTON

W. P. Barrows is in Montpelier for er

Isador Sockol of Montreal is in town on business. Miss Clara Burgess was in New- pain. port over the week-end. Mrs. J. R. Collison is ill at her rooms in Mr. Urie's house. W. J. Utton has returned from a business trip to New York City.

Mrs. Daisy Baldwin is at home for vacation from her school at Willoughby. It is reported that Mr. Estabrook has sold his meat business to parties

Rev. A. B. Blake, who has been poorly for some time, continues about

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitten have home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. returned to Boston after being in F. S. Whitcher.

town for some time. from a week's stay with her sister, Barton given under the auspices of Mrs. E. P. Flint. A son was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Vlacid LaMere, who live on the

WANTED

WANTED-Live poultry. Elrick,

WANTED-Two girls for general housework in a restaurant. No cookng. Normandy Cafe, Barton. 10tf WANTED-To buy small second-hand safe in good condition. H. D.

Miller, Westfield. WANTED-Man for general farm Walker, Barton.

WANTED - Calfskins, carcasses, and horse hides, also all kinds of junk. I. Solomon, Water street, Barton. Tel.

Morse, Box 267, Barton.

WANTED-Fresh eggs and poulry Mondays at Orleans express station. E. S. Kelley, Orleans.

WANTED-Good, reliable middle ged woman for general housework. Good wages to right party. References required. Inquire 215, Monitor WANTED-Orders for Equity cotton seed meal $45, Bull brand $42. All mill feeds. Straight cars at the roll call was answered by favorite Pond has been caring for her. prices quoted in Boston daily papers recipes. Mrs. Ruth Webster sang Brooks, Willoughby. 'Phone Barton, Mixed cars slightly higher. Your "The Song of a Robin," and "Madcap dealer will again reduce his profits Marjorie." The chafing dish commit- were called to Willoughby the past $10 per ton if you place your order with E. L. Graves, Ag't. Farmers' Mrs. Hibbard were assisted by Mrs. Supply Co.

MISCELLANEOUS

DRAWING and PAINTING lessons given. Hazel Abbott, Barton. 11-12p

CASH PAID for furs, hides and unk. Telephone 58-11. Daniel Zabaasky, Barton.

NOTICE - Commencing Sunday, March 20, my Sunday papers will be sold for cash only. F. G. Burdick. 1w

BARTON TAILOR CO. Ladies'

FARMERS' NOTICE—Want to buy 10 good dairy cows due to freshen this month or in April. G. S. Dodge, Orleans.

NOTICE-Village and farm real estate. Any person wishing to buy, trade or sell places, call on W. B. Proctor, real estate agent, Barton.

CUSTOM SAWING FOR FARM-ERS—We are ready and willing to take care of the wants of the farmers and will do custom sawing for hem at our three mills. Wessell. Nickel & Gross, Barton.

INSURANCE AND REAL ES-FATE-Best stock and mutual comirst class piano tuner and repairer, panies. Surety bonds all kinds of vilvork guaranteed. At Barton next lage real estate. Any one having vil-Vednesday. Can leave orders at lage real estate they wish to sell call 1tf on F. W. Baldwin, Barton. 39tf

Bostonia Sextette Rare Treat

Seaver's hall was well filled Tuessecond prize of $5, and Avis Bowen, a chance to listen to such fine music by Mr. Seaver for 27 years. Mr. Sea-FOR SALE—A few R. C. R. I. red '22, the third prize of $2.50. Clifton and the evening was one of rare en- ver expects to remain in the block Notice!

News of a Brownington Suicide by shooting will be found on page 2 and a story of County Court proceedings on page 6. These articles were omitted from page 1 by error.

Mrs. C. R. Prescott is assisting in the Hutchins store during the mil-

Rev. W. A. Warner of Peacham was in town Monday to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. W. E. Nye.

Miss Mildred Lang has gone to East Charleston to spend a week with her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Blood. G. D. Donald of the Donald Mfg.

Remember that you have only until the first of April to get your dog licensed. Don't delay too long. Regular meeting of Crystal Lake be answered by Irish quotations. Miss Beatrice Parker, who is in been spending several days in town. Mrs. L. T. Fayer and children spent several days of last week at the home

Dr. H. V. Hight, chiropodist, will be at Hotel Barton Friday, March 18. All foot ailments corrected without

Mrs. Lulu Baker and children of St. Johnsbury have been visiting at the home of C. F. Cutler on Park

The Flynt Construction Co., has finished work here and gone to Spring- Stevens for the sugar season. field, Mass. Mrs. Lulu Lewis Baker of St. Johnsbury Center and young son were here to attend the funeral of Orman Drew on Saturday. Mrs. Walter King of West Glover spent a few days the past week at the Davio.

The New Harmony Orchestra plays Miss Harriet Austin has returned for a St. Patrick's dance at Hotel he American Legion..

Word comes from John McLellan and family, who have spent the winter months in Pasadena, Cal., that they will soon start for Vermont. Sarah K. Austin, a former wellknown resident, is ill at the home of on business Saturday. her son, C. E. Austin, at Saskatche-

The community was shocked Saturday morning to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. W. E. Nye at her home on Elm Street. Full particulars wil follow in next week's issue. The Afternoon Study Club will hold their meeting with Mrs. May Barrows work to commence April 1st. P. D. on Thursday, March 17. Each mem- day and took up her school duties 11-12 ber is asked to bring 10 cents to help again. defray the expenses of the refresh-

Mrs. C. L. Hutchins has returned from Boston, where she attended the New England Association of Millin-WANTED-To hire or rent small ers and fashion show. Mrs. Hutchins the past week. farm by experienced man. Myron has a fine line of both millinery and 35tf | ladies' garments.

Several of the friends of Miss Kathleen Blake met at her home Thursday evening in honor of her 12th thday. A dinner was served at 6 o'clock after which the young ladies Johnsbury the past week. enjoyed a jolly time. Miss Blake was presented with several nice gifts.

The Woman's Literary club held Lunch was served and a good amount its adjourned meeting with Miss Eva of sewing done. Baxter on Friday evening. Thirtytee, Miss Baxter, Mrs. Robinson and 11tf Lee and Mrs. Kinsey and served a delicious lunch of creamed chicken on fee, cake and wafers.

Joy Supreme.

And, in the glory of the lilies, in the great joy of the glad morning, there should be no heart that any fate can rob of its serenity, no soul that the powers of evil can successfully assault.

EASTER'S AWAKENING.

Never yet was a springtime, Late though lingered the snow, That the sap stirred not at the whisp Of the south wind, sweet and low: Never yet was a springtime When the buds forgot to blow.

Ever the wings of the summer Are folded under the mold: Life, that has known no dying, Is Love's, to have and to hold: fill sudden, the bourgeoning Easter! The song! the green and the gold! -Margaret E. Sangster.

Seaver Sells Block to Durkee

H. T. Seaver sold his large block in In the death of G. Orman Drew and remain in business as heretofore This was the fifth and last number and it is reported that as soon as Mr. S. Mason at South Albany, who died Durkee disposes of his large farm in about 15 years ago. He leaves one Derby Line he may come to Barton brother, Frank Drew, and two sisters. to reside. The deal is one of the largest in the village for some time.

The block is three stories with basement and is approximately 70 feet on Saturday, March 12, Rev. M. A. Turnthe square and 100 feet on Glover er officiating at this service. Burial street with sheds and storage room took place in the family lot in the in the rear.

GLOVER

Buswell Leonard has sold his farm Charles Oddie.

Milo Bacon of Newport was in town Saturday in the interest of the Boys' and Girls' Club work. Mrs. Dora Lyon and Miss Vera Phillips visited friends in Sheffield over the week-end.

The drama, "Mr. Bob," will be repeated Friday night in Institute hall, to be followed by an old folks' ball. Oren Miles of Groveton, N. H., and Walker Bros., of Springfield, Mass., were in Glover for the week-end. HOVER COMMUNITY CHURCH

Pastor, Rev. John Kimball. Morning worship, 11 a. m. Sunday school at 12 o'clock.

The special services in the Sunday school next Sunday will be in charge of the men's class. The topic of the sermon will be, of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wylie in Glov- "The Master Is Calling Thee." WEST GLOVER

Ross Wright has begun work for C. M. Borland. Schools closed Friday for their spring vacation.

Ethel Locke is working at J. N Whalen's in Irasburg. Oney Lafont is at the home of his Wm. L. Thomas, time-keeper for brother, Orin Lafont.

Elery Lyndes is working for R. C. Ruth Bean has gone to Burlington will put up a two-story building, 52 to work in the home of Roy Buchanan. by 32 G. L. Young was a business visitor in West Burke the first of the week. Hardwick, where she will spend the Mr. and Mrs. Archie Davis are the spring vacathe home of his brother, Mitchell Tony Roy.

Myrtle Ticehurst is assisting her aunt, Mrs. C. R. Vance, at South Al

Eunice Stevens and Isabelle Young were home for the week-end from their schools.

WESTMORE

Joseph Wills of East Haven is home George Craig was in West Burke

Carroll and Elvin Switzer have wan, and the latest reports are not gone to Lyndon for a while. Fred and Ralph Tatro are carrying on the Conley sugar place. Ira Lyon of East Charleston was in town one day the past week.

Dorothy Calkins visited at Newport the latter part of the week. Miss Theo Hendrix returned Mon-

George and Gerald Conley have sold their farm to Dr. Wells of Or-

J. A. Legacy visited his mother. and brother, John Legacy, at Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messier vis-in Sutton the past week. Oscar Lyon and Rawson Calkins attended the listers' meeting at St.

The Lend a Hand sewing circle met with Mrs. Oscar Lyon Wednesday.

Mrs. John Hinton, who has been eight members and five guests were very if, is better. Her grandmoth- the Congregational church. Everypresent. After the business meeting er, Mrs. John Callaghan, of Island one is cordially invited. A lunch and

E. J. Wheeler and daughter, Mary, dress. brother-in-law, James Dodge.

Miss Rose and sister, Dr. Morganthaler, of New York are stopping at saltines with lettuce, and olives, cof- G. M. Craig's for a few days until it village at 10.30 Friday morning. Reis warm enough to occupy their cot- quiem mass was conducted by Rev.

> The young ladies of the Good Will Sunday school class held a 3 o'clock health for a year, but had been about dinner at the home of their teacher, as usual until last week, when he Mrs. Hattie Myers, Saturday, Games was stricken after returning home were played and a good general time from Hardwick and gradually failed was had by all.

ar social at the Mill Brook school-house Friday evening, March 18. Ev-The Good Will class will hold a sugeryone please bring a pencil. Ladies lagher, who came from Ireland and stand out with a show of the golden please bring plain doughnuts and settled in Craftsbury in 1847. From heart of hope; the calla lily, with its cy, could be written on The Humor sour pickles. Cordial invitation to all. early life he had been a dealer in Admission 10 cents.

WILLOUGHBY

Hazel Waterman is on the sick list. Lyndon this week.

Mrs. Ralph Leonard visited friends in Orleans Friday. Annie Hemmings is visiting friends | interest in affairs of this section and in Holyoke, Mass.

Carl Wheeler of Montreal was visitor here last week. Mildred Drown spent the week-end with friends at Lyndon.

the dance given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hemmings Saturday. Mrs. Frank Nelson, who has been very ill at his mother's home in Orleans, was able to return to her home here Saturday.

About 30 young people attended advertisements will be inserted under this and the cents per word for first inserted and the cents per word for first inserted and the cents per word thereafter. Cash made at one end of the hall and was made at one end of the hall and was made at one end of the hall and was made at one end of the hall and was made at one end of the hall and was high in praise of the wonderful diate possession. The block is the number of the inserted under this contest at Alumni hall. A stage was made at one end of the hall and was high in praise of the wonderful diate possession. The block is the largest business block in Barton, contest at Alumni hall. A stage was made at one end of the hall and was high in praise of the wonderful diate possession. The block is the largest business block in Barton, contest at Alumni hall. A stage was made at one end of the hall and was high in praise of the wonderful diate possession. The block is the largest business block in Barton, contest at Alumni hall. A stage was and vicinity and everyone present diate possession. The block is the largest business block in Barton village Friday, to E. H. Dur-light saving system in Massachusetts was high in praise of the wonderful diate possession. The block is the largest business block in Barton, contest at Alumni hall. A stage was and vicinity and everyone present diate possession. The block is the diate possession. The block is the largest business block in Barton village Friday, to E. H. Dur-light saving system in Massachusetts and vicinity and everyone present diate possession. The block is the diate possession. The block is the diate possession. The block is the diate possession and vicinity and everyone present diate possession. The block is the diate possession and vicinity and everyone present kee of Derby Line, who took immediate possession are distinct to the diate possession and vicinity and everyone present kee of Derby Line, who took immediate possession are distinct to the diate possession and vicinity and everyone present kee of Derby Li remain the large of the series of the legislature was and flowers.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE Mr. Drew was born in Danville in A fight is being waged in that state and after a debate which consumed at the present time to have this law nearly three hours. Hill Drew. He was married to Lydia repealed and if such occurs there

> Rev. J. J. Hutchinson, pastor. The funeral was held at the home Prayer meeting and Bible study Thursday at 7.30. Sunday, March 20 Welcome O. Brown cemetery. CARD-We wish to thank our ble music and sermon. neighbors and all the friends for the Sunday school 11.45. thoughtful kindnesses shown us in the death and burial of our dear brother. May God's blessings be showered upon them in his own good time. good singing. Frank Drew, Sophia L. Drew, Helen A. Jerrome.

G. Orman Drew.

Miss Sophia L. Drew and Mrs. Helen

Jerome, all residents of Barton.

CRAFTSBURY The Epworth League has voted to hold an April fool social, April 1. John Babcock of Hardwick was a business visitor in town Monday.

son, where she has been teaching. Mrs. Lydia Robbins returned from 22, 1909. Brightlook hospital Friday afternoon. The deceased is survived by two woods getting out timber for the new Keir store.

J. D. Leavitt has sold his saw and dressing mill property to Mr. Stowell of Orleans.

mother, who is ill. pleasant time was enjoyed. Mildred Silver finished her work at out this fact.

the Smith home Saturday and returned to her home in Collinsville. Ethel Bitter finished her work at Andrew Young's and returned to her home in Greensboro Saturday. Percy Keir has decided to rebuild his block which lately burned.

Emma Moodie went Saturday to spring vacation with her sister, Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. David Moodie of Hardwick came Saturday to spend some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Moodie. The W. F. M. S. meeting will be held Friday afternoon with Mrs. Martin Sawyer. This is the annual meeting and a full attendance is desired. NORTH CRAFTSBURY James Ryan from New Hampshire is visiting friends here. Mrs. Chas. Robbins spent the weekend at her home on West Hill. James Coomer has gone to Albany to work for Tom Mullaney in sugar-Miss Noolan from Burlington is visiting Miss Dora Gallagher for a H. B. Dunn has rented C. W.

Wheeler's sugar orchard for the sea-Mrs. Fred Root spent the last of the week with her mother in Greens-C. H. Root has been confined to the house the past week with a severe Mrs. Fred Estell, who has been in Manchester, N. H., visiting friends, returned home Saturday. The Greensboro 2d came and playited his sister, Mrs. Fred Chamberlin ed the C. A. 2d Friday night. The score stood 34 to 17 in favor of the

The game of basket ball at Orleans played by the C. A. team and Orleans High School stood 34 to 11 in favor of the C. A. team. Clarence H. Dempsey, commission-er of education from Montpelier, will club Thursday evening, March 24, in business meeting will preceed the ad-THOMAS M. GALLAGHER Thomas M. Gallagher died at his home at North Craftsbury Tuesday morning. Funeral services were held at St. Norbert's church in this

. J. LeVeer. The service was very largely attended. Mr. Gallagher had not been in good until the end. Thos. M. Gallagher was born in orses and cattle and as such had a wide acquaintance in the southern state. He was honored with the offices of selectman, overseer and justice of the peace in th town of Craftsbury at different times and was at the time of his death a trustee of the Craftsbury academy. He represented the town in the state legislature in 1890. He was a director of the Hardwick Savings Bank & Trust Co., and was one of the incorporators of that institution. He was also one of the incorporators of the Hardwick &

Wodbury railroad. Mr. Gallagher was married to Clara Change of Time in Train Service

there was to be a change in running schedule of all passenger trains on the weeks' work of the legislature was Congregational Church Notes.

10.30 Palm Sunday service. Suita-

6.00 C. E. meeting. 7.00 "A Big Present Day Question" Newport town, were opposed. Mr. the subject of the talk. Plenty of Connal closed the debate. He said: is the subject of the talk. Plenty of Methodist Church Notes Rev. M. A. Turner, Pastor. Preaching service 10.30. Sunday school 11.45. Epworth League 6.00 o'clock.

Preaching service 7.00.

Hilda Daverson is home from John-Renfrew of Craftsbury, March 16 1886. Her death occurred Februar

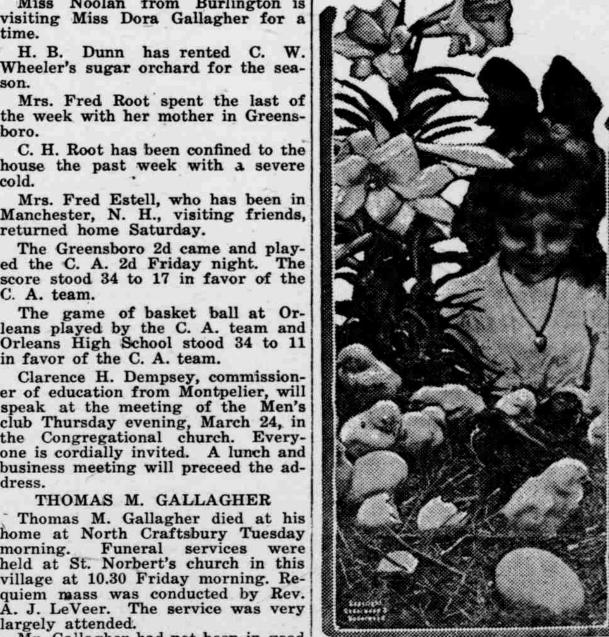

Will Barber is working in the children, S. Renfrew Gallagher of this place and Miss Dora A. Gallag her, who resided with him at North Craftsbury; also two sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Nora Sheehan o Craftsbury, Mrs. Martin J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Moodie went all of Hardwick. His demise is the Wednesday to Waterbury to visit her first to occur in the family circle, which has been near and closely re-Unit No. 1 held a social at Phillips lated for many years, and the figures Morse's Friday evening. A very of the ages of the six brothers and sisters, aggregating 384 years, bear

The remains were placed in the re-ceiving vault in the Main street cemetery, and will be interred in the family lot in the spring.

GLORIOUS LILIES OF EASTER

Beautiful Flowers Epitomize the Blossoming and Exquisite Beauty and Gladness of Spring. Redolent and abounding lilies are seen everywhere. They are march tuberculosis. ing along the highways of morning; they are painted by the tints of the stained glass that gories that have been theirs-the lilyof-the-valley, whose sheen is more like material, now as hard as stone, wonderful than the glory of the great which is supposed to have been sedi-Solomon, the annunciation lily, with its folded petals like the clasped hands of a virgin, the lily of the resurrection, with its star-flared petals that stately presence and exquisite per- in Wills." For example, take this fume, the very essence of the esthetic passage from the will of Lord Pemsentiments of the day; the lilium au- broke: "I becauath nothing to Lore and Caledonia counties. He was al- ratum, with its golden bands of faith, Say, because I know he will bestow it so a dealer in real estate and had hope and of love; the tiger lily, that upon the poor." Or this: A Lanca-Jane Duke is visiting her son at farm and village property holdings shows forth the passions of men held shire gentleman bequeathed an ounce in Craftsbury, Morrisville and Hard- in check upon Easter day; the yellow of modesty to the editor of the London wick. Mr. Gallagher was a man of garden lily that stands for the home- Journal, explaining the small quantity good judgment and business accu- ly aspirations of men on the day of by saying that he was "convinced that men and always manifested an active the blossoming and exquisite beauty an ounce would be found more than of spring opening and of heart gladness!

Superfluous Invention. See where some professor thinks he ings-to get to our duty and our cross has invented a machine to detect when in spite of them-to do that summer a man is lying. That machine was and winter till we die, is the one road

Adam's ribs.-Dayton News.

THE LEGISLATURE

Owing to the adoption of the day- Kills Central Teachers' College Bill Passes Compromise Road Bill ahead of the present standard time. worable report from the committees

First blood went to the antagonists will be no change in the present sched- of the bill when Mr. Barber of Wilmington moved that the house go into committee of the whole and hear Rev. Arthur Hewitt of Plainfield, member of the state board of education, and the House refused to hear him, the vote being 159 to 60. Many were heard on the bill, among them being Mr. Cushman of Roches-ter, Mr. Tyler of Enosburg, Miss Beard of Orange, and Mr. Barber of Wilmington, for the bill, while Mr. Stearns of Johnson, Mr. Button of Middlebury and Mr. Connal of

"There was no present shortage of teachers for secondary schools but that there was an admitted shortage of teachers for the rural or elementary schools. He charged the ineffi-ciency of Johnson and Castleton schools against the management. "It was a crime to conduct any business the way those normal schools have been conducted, but the state board is not directly to blame. The real criminal has escaped. He is without the jurisdiction of the state and I don't think any one will send out requisition papers after The speaker referred to the woman's dormitory at Windsor, the empty house of correction at Rutland, the

Vail school as other examples of bad management. "We should not have scattered about the state these monumental failures," said the speaker, "and if we establish this teachers" college the next administration will probably put that in the same class." He said the demand for the teachers' college did not come from the people but from the board of education, the superintendents and the teachers, all owing their appoint-was 129 to 67 against the bill. The compromise highway bill by which a state board of three members and a commissioner are to be constituted started on its way through the Vermont legislature when the House passed the bill, under suspension of rules, and by a unanimous vote.

ments to the board. The final vote

The Senate has passed the bovine tuberculosis bill, setting aside $200,-000 annually for the eradication of Mr. Barrows of Barton presented hope; they are merged in his delayed report on the state prison the glory of the Easter last week, no opposition being made to its adoption. In addition to the recommendation for removing the women to the house of correction in falls through the cathedral windows; Rutland, the report calls for an approthey are in the thought of all and in priation of $10,000 for granary, hosthe words of many, in the sentiments pital stalls and other equipment.

altar steps, and where the sacred desk ly and recommended the moving of stands before the congregation. Lilles a building in the yard as a fire hazstand forth in the wonderful alle- ard and the equipment of a new wing as a store room. A $2 poll tax bill was passed by the House last week and the Dunham and traditions of the day. There they | The report commended the general are in great banks and piles about the management of the prison very high-

Sunday bill was passed by the senate and goes to the governor. The five highway appropriation bills, apportioning certain amounts from the maintenance fund for special highway work, were passed by the House as follows: H. 374, $2,000 for improving Willoughby Lake road; H. 375, $6,000 to construct a highway parallel to the Canadian border in the town of Canaan; H. 376, $5,000 to improve the old Stratton turnpike, so-called; H. 377, $1,000 to aid Mount Tabor in improving the Western highway; and H. 378, $2,000 to improve Harlow Hill road in the town of a third reading: H. 109, $1,000 to aid the town of Plymouth in improving a certain road; H. 67, $5,000 (amended to $1,500) to aid the town of Woodbury to liquidate the debt incurred in building a new schoolhouse; H. 97, $6,000 maximum to improve the main cross state road from Lincoln to Warren; H. 299, $1,000 to reimburse the town of Sheldon for money expended n making repairs on a school build-

Four other town aid bills went to waring factions on educational policies. World's Oldest Canal. A farm near Roswell, N. M., has an irrigation ditch or canal which is thought to have been built centuries before the time of Columbus, The walls of the canal are built of a clay-

It is now thought the legislature will finish its ubsiness and adjourn next week if a compromise education-ment from a nearby spring.

* Post-Mortem Johns. Quite an interesting ar fele, we fanhe would ever make use of."-Boston Heroes.

Transcript

No man is ever far from the herole who has learned to do things when he feels least like doing them. To trample underfoot all moods and feelconstructed years ago from one of to the music and the crown,-G. H. Matrison.